Welcome to this year's

Deal Festival of Music and the Arts

Deal Festival of Music and the Arts is constantly growing, and ambition and aspiration drive our purpose. However, the values of engagement, excellence and enrichment are built into everything we plan.

Once again, we combine outstanding 'established' and 'emerging' artists, full in the knowledge that the energy of such events is felt by all. We are very proud to welcome major international artists such as Steven Isserlis, DFMA's Vice President and a former Artistic Director; Guy Johnston, 2000 BBC Young Musician of the Year, performing alongside the European Union Chamber Orchestra; and Freddy Kempf, 1992 BBC Young Musician of the Year and 1996 winner of Moscow's International Tchaikovsky Competition. Following last year's memorable 'Spirit of Venice' we welcome back the Academy of Ancient Music who, together with talented young musicians from Guildhall School of Music and Drama's Historical Performance department, profile the music of J.S. Bach under the direction of Bach scholar John Butt. Among the new faces at Deal will be the brilliant music theatre ensemble East London Music Group, classical accordionist Bartosz Glowacki and Mugenkyo Taiko Drummers. Opera comes to Deal with the Olivier-Award winning company OperaUpClose and jazz is presented by arguably the most exciting Big Band in the UK, the National Youth Jazz Orchestra of Great Britain. We promise to provide special musical experiences, such as Morgan Szymanski's magical guitar recital, which will be surrounded by the exquisite paintings of Joseph Sevier, while Kosmos bring you hot-blooded tango. SEAS artists create live art to Olivier Messiaen's poignant 'Quartet for the End of Time'. Drama comes to life in the magnificent gardens of Walmer Castle and The Pines, courtesy of The Changeling Theatre Company, and the often bawdy past of Deal is re-enacted by Simon Gregory with a cast of locally based performers. We are proud too to have re-established a relationship with Turner Contemporary, where a special day of contemporary dance and music will permeate the entire gallery with the remarkable dancers from Trinity Laban and percussionist Joby Burgess. There are many events for younger people and families, celebrations of the work being done by our flagship education programme Bold As, and walks and talks and a host of lunchtime and fringe concerts and events.

2016's programme, the 34th Deal Festival, is brim full of musical ambition and aspiration and we hope you enjoy each event having felt totally engaged and enriched.

Our festival reaches firmly into Deal, Dover, Sandwich and Margate, and with such special places, brim full of fantastic pubs, restaurants, galleries, shops and attractions, you are guaranteed a good time. Enjoy!

5 JULY TUESDAY

1.30pm NYJO Ambassadors Schools Concert

Led by Mark Armstrong

St George's Church, Deal

Every jazz fan remembers their first gig, the one that sparked a lifelong love of the music: Sinatra at the Sands, Armstrong at the Cotton Club....NYJO at Deal Festival! In this concert, designed especially for secondary schools, you'll hear the sounds of the NYJO Ambassadors, who'll lift the lid on how jazz works. During the 50-minute concert you'll tap your toes to all sorts of jazz rhythms and learn about each of the instruments and their role in creating swinging music.

The performers are some of the UK's best young musicians, who are all part of the National Youth Jazz Orchestra, who will be performing a full concert at St George's Church on 16 July.

Limited access for general public – please call 01227 786111 if you wish to attend.

7.30pm She Stoops to Conquer The Changeling Theatre Company

The Pines Calyx, St Margaret's Bay

She Stoops to Conquer...or Mistakes of the Night by Oliver Goldsmith is a hilarious Comedy of Manners taking place over the course of one evening. Londoner Marlowe is invited to nouveau rich country squire Hardcastle's house to meet his daughter Kate, with a view to marriage.

More confident with lower class girls, when Marlowe meets Kate - a modest, well-dressed young woman - he barely has the confidence to look at her. But having been fooled into thinking Hardcastle's home is just an Inn and he is the Innkeeper, Kate then decides to dress 'down' and pretend to be the scullery maid to have fun with Marlowe, who falls for it and wants to run away with her. Of course, the trickery and mistaken identity resolves in the end but not without a lot of shenanigans and hilarity!

The gardens will open from 6pm. Bring a picnic for before the performance and supply your own chairs. Refunds from point of purchase will be offered if performance is cancelled prior to commencement.

2.00pm - 4.00pm

The Deal Nobody Knows (1)

Saints and Sinners –A Walk with Gregory Holyoake

Exploring Deal's shady past with fascinating tales of spies and smugglers, duellists and deserters, convicts and cannibals. There are gruesome tales of a murder most foul, Dr. Crippen, Jack the Ripper and Nelson's inglorious defeat.

By contrast, among the more reputable characters are Mrs. Elizabeth Carter, blue stocking authoress, and Thomas Stanley Treanor, chaplain to the Downs anchorage.

Our host is Deal's historian, Gregory Holyoake, author of 'Deal - Sad, Smuggling Town'.

A two hour leisurely stroll starting at the seaside of Deal Castle and finishing at St. Andrew's Church Hall for refreshments.

7.30pm

OperaUpClose

La Traviata (Verdi)

St George's Church, Deal

Olivier Award-winning OperaUpClose present their new version of La Traviata. The story of Violetta, a so-called 'fallen woman' who sacrifices her own happiness for the sake of her lover's family and future, La Traviata has been thrilling audiences for generations.

Set in Atlantic City, USA, in the 1920s prohibition era of speakeasies and bootlegging, with Violetta's lover Alfredo a passionate young man whose optimism has been shaken by time at the front in the first world war, Violetta's protector 'the Baron' a gang boss, and Alfredo's father a crooked politician, this new production reveals the hypocrisy and heartache behind the glittering façade of parties.

La Traviata is a co-production between OperaUpClose, Malmö Opera House and The Belgrade Theatre Coventry.

All's Well That Ends Well

by William Shakespeare

The Changeling Theatre Company in collaboration with English Heritage

Walmer Castle

All's Well that Ends Well tells the tale of two lovers, Helena and Bertram. Brought up together as the son and ward of a countess, Helen has an unhealthy crush on Bert. He goes off, following his Dad's death, to the French court to fight. Helena follows, cures the King of an apparently fatal disease along the way, and is rewarded by the King granting her any husband she wishes.

Helena chooses Bert but he refuses. When the King forces them to marry, Bert runs away to war saying Helena will have to get a ring from his finger and pregnant with his child if she wants to see him again. Helen follows in hot pursuit and through no end of Shakespeare's artful trickery she eventually wins her man. How does she do it? Come and see!

The castle will open from 6pm. Bring a picnic for before the performance and supply your own chairs.

Refunds from point of purchase will be offered if the performance is cancelled prior to commencement.

Art & Flames

Theatre project 2016

Deal Town Hall Undercroft

"Deal often seems like a portal to the rest of the world - people appear on our streets, visiting from far and wide. But imagine if Deal was a portal to the past with random appearances from characters from other centuries." This was the thought that inspired the creation of a new project by dynamic art group Loose Cannon, called "Art and Flames".

The Celebrations will include visitations from 18th Century Characters to tell the story of the boat-burning scandal of 1784 accompanied by music and song!

Additional performances on 15th July 2.00pm at Smugglers Record Shop, King Street, 16th July 12.00 noon Landmark Centre, and 3.00pm Kings Head (outside).
